

PATUCK-GALA COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

The College complies with the rules, regulations and guidelines of UGC and University of Mumbai with regards to curbing the menace of ragging.

Our College believes that a ragging-free campus is a fundamental requirement for a supportive and fair institutional climate and hence has formulated a policy document on anti-ragging.

The College has developed anti-ragging mechanism and has taken adequate steps to prevent ragging in the campus. As multi-mechanisms are required to ensure that our campus is ragging-free, the College has deployed the following action steps:

1. Constitution of Anti-Ragging Committee and its adequate publicity. The composition of the Committee is as follows:
 - a. Principal - Chairperson
 - b. Senior Faculty - Convenor
 - c. Other Faculty – Member
 - d. Non-teaching Staff - Member
2. Mention of anti-ragging warning in the College prospectus and College website.
3. Orientation to students about anti-ragging policy at the beginning of the academic year.
4. Conduct activities to sensitize students about the menace of ragging.
5. Installation of CCTV cameras at vital points.
6. Counsel students, if the case of ragging is detected.
7. Take suitable action against the perpetrators of ragging.

PATUCK-GALA COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

8. In case of students in distress due to ragging related incidents, they can inform the College Anti-Ragging Committee personally or call on 8828877021 or email at anti-ragging@patuck.edu.in
9. Bimonthly compliance report of Anti-Ragging Committee is submitted to University of Mumbai in the prescribed format.

The College anti-ragging policy fosters an environment of learning and progress of the students.

Principal Incharge

Patuck-Gala College of Commerce

Patuck Polytechnic Trust's

Patuck-Gala College of Commerce

Santacruz (E), Mumbai – 400 055.

